CHALLENGE

On a Sunday, Advanced Discovery was contacted by a prestigious law firm that required an experienced managed review team to complete a 70,000–document project with an imminent one-week deadline.

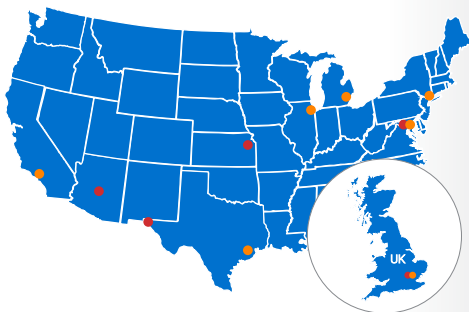

SOLUTION

Advanced Discovery's investments in on-demand expert guides, proven processes and robust technology was crucial in successfully delivering for this client. Working extended hours, we expedited processing and data reduction so that review could begin promptly and assembled a high-caliber, experienced team of 12 attorneys for the review itself well in advance of the Friday deadline.

ADVANTAGE

By close of business the Wednesday after the project was initiated, all documents were reviewed and ready for production. Advanced Discovery delivered a full service managed review, including processing, hosting, and production, all in 48 hours without sacrificing quality for speed.
